CITY DECLARES SNOW EMERGENCY

Due to the impending snow event, the City of Monroe has declared a Snow Emergency beginning Friday, February 9th, 2018, beginning at 8:00 AM.

When a Snow Emergency is declared, residents are asked not to park on the major routes (listed below), relocating their vehicles to other neighboring streets until these major streets have been cleared. This allows the Department of Public Service to provide more efficient plowing services.

Notification will be sent via the City's website and social media account when the Snow Emergency has been lifted.
